A Question of Social Rights for Mexicans Kerbel's Order of Exclusion.

pondence of the Gazette Sin Antonio, August 17.—The readers of the Gazerra have been apprised heretofore of the fact that there was speek of war going on in this city between some of our Mexican citizens and the lesses of S on Pedro park, Fred Kerbel, 'The conflict substeed a few days ago by Kerbel's making a personal explanation to a committee repre-senting the Mexicans that was satisfactory to them, and was followed b the adoption of a report accepting Ker-

A history of this remarkable conflict may be interesting, as nothing like it has been heard of in Texas since the Mexican war. Kerbel feases San Pedro park from the city. Their ravings were taken up by Mexicans along the Rio Grande and in Mexico, and much bitterness was engendered against the Gringo, which was an unhappy consequence, particularly at this time. In fact one Mexican addressed a letter to a friend and city official here inquiring whether it was true as had been reported to ing Mexican residents from frequent-Ing public resorts in this city which Americans frequented. It turned out that there was much of politics connected with the settle ment of the Kerbel trouble. The politiefans, who receive benefits from the Mexican vote recognized the mistake that they had made and hurried to cover it over and smooth it down. They were likely to array the great mass of other voting elements against them, and this would not do.

We have in this city many good Mexfean citizens-gentlemen and ladies the peers in culture, morals and intelli-gence of any other class. They are noble, high-minded, generous, and brave, charms to society and an honor to the city. The act of Mr. Kerbel did not mean anything—it could not have meant anything—was only a lash of impulse from an inflamed Western Union.
